

Built By Lessons: Turn YOUR Challenges into Triumphs

Life doesn't just happen to us—we build it, one lesson at a time.

At 23, Gary Daly found himself lost in Australia, working for a company that would soon go bankrupt, struggling to pay rent, and wondering how he ended up there. But instead of letting failure define him, he used it as fuel to rebuild. Now, after thriving in four countries, earning multiple promotions, and pushing his limits in business, health, and personal growth, he's here to share the lessons that transformed his life.

Built By Lessons is a raw, real, and practical guide to taking control of your future. Through personal stories, hard-won insights, and a no-nonsense approach, Gary shows you how to:

- ✓ Set ambitious goals and take massive action
- ✓ Break free from limiting beliefs and embrace growth
- ✓ Master your mindset, time, and energy for peak performance
- ✓ Build resilience through adversity and turn setbacks into stepping stones
- ✓ Find your “destiny helpers”—the mentors and relationships that change everything

From climbing mountains in subzero temperatures with Wim Hof to winning global pitch competitions, this book contains real-world lessons, tested and proven in the trenches of life and business.

If you're tired of feeling stuck and ready to create a future you're proud of, Built By Lessons will show you how to reset, refocus, and rise to your potential.

Your future self is waiting. Time to build.
